2014 Club Captain: Shane Fegan

It is an honour for me to be elected Captain for 2014.

It's over 30 years now since my father and I were hitting golf balls in stubble covered fields after the first cut of silage, where the 3rd hole is now. It's there that the dream of turning the farm with its many stone ditches into a golf course was born. My father spent many years turning that dream into a reality. It is unbelievable how things have moved on in what seems such a short space of time. My respect for him and pride in what he has built is magnified by the fact it was done almost single handedly, thanks dad, amazing!

This year my goals as Captain are to further improve the course, continuing to upgrade tee boxes, add ball washers, benches and further improve the general appearance of the course for members and visitors. I also want to see Mayobridge Golf Club members show their true potential in interclub GUI and Cowdy competitions, and would remind teams of the importance of away practice rounds in order to get a couple of away points. My chosen charity for the club this year is Southern Area Hospice and we will have an open charity weekend competition on the 7th/8th June.

This time last year I was just starting to take a few steps again after my scrambler accident and I really do count my blessings knowing I will be back playing golf again in 2014. It's great that we have new members coming in and I know you will make them all feel welcome, it's what our club is about. We have various prize giving nights coming up throughout the year, and some great music planned, it's important that members support these nights and turn up to collect prizes or support those who have been that lucky. Lastly slow play, remember your group can play as slow as you want, just as long as you don't make every group behind play at that pace, always allow quicker groups past at your earliest convenience. My vice captain, Des Carson, and I are honoured to represent Mayobridge Golf Club in 2014, so let the competitions commence, have a great years golf and craic!
